

ADDENDUM TO THE EXECUTIVE PROTOCOL
OF THE MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN
UNIVERSITY OF TRIESTE (ITALY)
AND CAMED BUSINESS SCHOOL

1. Foreseen Activities

Both Institutions indicate their willingness to cooperate in the promotion of the educational activities foreseen by this agreement:

- Exchange of Bachelor and/or Master and/or Doctorate students.

The present agreement will regulate all administrative and educational aspects.

2. Mobility numbers per academic year

Each Institution shall select students whom they deem suitable to take part in the study abroad programme, according to the criteria indicated in the internal Call of each respective Institution. Students will be selected among those enrolled at the study courses belonging to the area code/s indicated in the table below.

The maximum duration of the exchange is indicated in the table below. However, if for educational reasons a change in duration is necessary, a different duration will be mutually agreed by professors responsible of the student mobility for each area code.

Both Institutions shall attempt to keep a reasonable balance in the number of students exchanged.

FROM	TO	Subject area code (ISCED)	Subject area name	Study cycle (Bachelor -1st, Master 2nd, Doctorate 3rd)	Number of Students	Number of months for each student
University of Trieste	CamEd Business School	0310 / 0410	Social and behavioural sciences Business and administration	1st(BACHELOR)	2	6
CamEd Business School	University of Trieste	0310 / 0410	Social and behavioural sciences Business and administration	1st(BACHELOR)	2	6

The Parties agree that the total number of student mobilities provided for under this Addendum constitutes the maximum overall and non-cumulative quota of mobility flows between the Parties, including where an Erasmus+ Inter-Institutional Agreement is also in force, and shall under no circumstances result in an increase in the total number of mobility places agreed upon.

DEGLI STUDI

Partner Institutions commit to amend the above table in case of changes of mobility conditions intervened at each partner Institution no later than January in the preceding academic year.

3. Recommended language skills

Each sending institution is responsible for providing support to its nominated students so that they can have the recommended language skills at the beginning of course at partner Institution.

For the University of Trieste, the level of Italian language recommended to attend course is B2 QCER.

For the CamEd Business School the level of English language required to attend course is the following: B2

4. Activities to be carried out at foreign Institution

At the host institution, students shall be allowed to do the following activities (choose one or more options):

- ☒ attend classes and take the prescribed exams at the end;
- ☐ pursue research activities for the final thesis;
- ☒ take part in a traineeship when this is foreseen by in the degree programme.

Activities to be carried out at the foreign University will be indicated in a Learning Agreement and shall be approved by the involved Department/s of each Institution before departure.

At the end of the exchange period, the receiving Institution shall issue a Transcript of Records' certificate attesting the activities which have been carried out by each student.

During the exchange period at the host institution students shall comply with internal rules and regulations of the partner Institution.

5. Tuition fees and other costs

Student exchanges deriving from this Addendum will be implemented on a "fee waiver" basis: students at both Universities will be exempted from fees while attending the host University.

6. Insurance

Students from both Institutions are covered by their home universities' insurance for accidents and illnesses caused by accidents and civil liability.

Students will be asked to sign their own health insurance before departure.

7. Financial resources

Each University will be responsible for financing scholarships made available for their respective selected students.

8. Validity period of the agreement

This Agreement shall remain in force until the expiry date of the pertaining Executive Protocol. The validity of this agreement may be extended by mutual consent in writing.

9. Final provisions

For any point not specifically covered by this Agreement it shall be referred to the Memorandum of Understanding.
