

English abstract of a Public Announcement - protocol number 217/2014 - of comparative procedure for an assignment of occasional self-employment to be performed on behalf of the Department of Political and Social Sciences - University of Trieste a call to assign a temporary position of occasional collaboration at the Department of political and social sciences (University of Trieste) in the context of the project “Economic crisis and quality of democracy in Europe” to collect qualitative data on the basis of a provided questionnaire. Data collection refers to the country-case of Poland (the data collection entails the conduction of interviews to scholars and policy makers in the country) and the drafting of a research report in english, based on the data so collected.

Is open

The assignment will last for three months; the initial and final term of the assignment will be indicated by written notification to the collaborator, completed the procedures described in the official announcement . The research assistant above mentioned will receive a salary of 7200 (gross) euro, which will be paid at the end of the contract, once the report has been delivered.

The activity of data collection and report drafting will be carried on without any specific obligation, under condition of full technical and organizational autonomy. The research assistant is obliged only and specifically with regard to the delivering of the final report.

The candidacy, consisting into the CV and the form annexed in the official announcement entirely filled, together with all the declarations requested, should be send by mandatory deadline on July 22th at 1 p.m. The candidate is free to choose one among the following options:

- a) material delivery at the secretary of the Department of political and social sciences
- b) delivery by certified and secured post at the address: Al Direttore del Dipartimento di scienze politiche e sociali - Università degli Studi di Trieste - Piazzale Europa, 1 - CAP 34127 – Trieste. On the envelope please write “Avviso occasionale protocollo 217/2014 <QuestionarioPolonia>”
- c) delivery by certified and secured email (PEC). In this case the documents - Form and CV - need to be signed with digital signature.

Please, notice that the candidate should send the CV signed in the original version, written in italian or english, and a photocopy of her/his id.

Eligible conditions for this call are:

- Phd in political science (or in comparative politics, international relations, or european studies);
- advanced skills in written and oral English, which will be assessed on the basis of the previous experiences, in research or alike. These professional experiences should be mentioned explicitly in the CV as an alternative, a certificate proving the knowledge of English should be provided.

For this procedure, the candidate should consider as eligible the following degrees and qualifications:

- master and post graduate degrees in political science, comparative politics, international relations, European studies;
- research experiences and professional experiences with reference to the analysis of the democracy and the democratic quality of Poland;
- publications and participation to scientific conferences and workshop in the field mentioned above, specially related to the analysis of democracy and the analysis of the polish democracy.

For the Form and more details see the Official Announcement